Supplies mean the Goods and/or Services which are provided by the Seller to the Buyer pursuant to the Contract.

Technology means information which is required for the development, production or use of the Goods (including any software) including but not limited to such whose export is legally controlled or information which is required for the design of, the assembly of components into, and the operation, maintenance and repair of complete production installations of the Goods whose export is legally controlled and shall include, but not be limited to, blueprints, plans, diagrams, models, formulae, tables, engineering designs and specifications, manuals and instructions in connection with the same and whether or not it is written, printed, recorded, saved electronically, spoken or passed on in some other way. For the purposes of these Standard Conditions "development", "production", or "use" are defined in the Export Control Order 2008.

VAT means value added tax as provided for in the UK Value Added Tax Act 1994.

Warranty Period the period defined in clause 7.1.

2. Formation of Contract

- 2.1. The Contract will be formed upon these Standard Conditions to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions, including any terms or conditions which the Buyer purports to impose or incorporate under any purchase order, confirmation of order or similar document, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.
- 2.2. Each Order or acceptance of a quotation will be deemed to be an offer by the Buyer to purchase Supplies in accordance with these Standard Conditions. The Contract is formed when the Order is accepted by Seller by way of a written Order Acknowledgement. No contract will come into existence until a written Order Acknowledgement is issued by Seller.
- 2.3. Any quotation shall not constitute an offer and is valid for a period of thirty days only from its date (or such other period as may be specified in the quotation), provided the Seller has not previously withdrawn it, but no contract shall be created by acceptance by the Buyer of such a quotation. A Contract shall only be created by the Seller issuing a written Order Acknowledgement to the Buyer as set out in clause 2.2.
- 2.4. The Buyer must ensure that the terms of its Order are complete and accurate.
- 2.5. If no Order Acknowledgement has been issued by the Seller, acceptance of delivery of the Goods or commencement of the performance of the Services shall be deemed conclusive evidence of the Buyer's acceptance of these Standard Conditions.

- 2.6. All of these conditions shall apply to the supply of both Goods and Services except where application to one or the other is specified.
- 2.7. Save as set out in the Contract, these Standard Conditions shall not be varied or amended except in writing and signed by a duly authorised officer of the Seller.
- 3. Order of Precedence
- 3.1. In the event of any conflict, the following order of precedence shall apply:
- 3.1.1. the Order Acknowledgement and any documents referenced therein;
- 3.1.2. these Standard Conditions.
- 4. Price and Payment
- 4.1. The price for the Goods shall be the price set out in the Order or if no price is quoted, the price set out in the Seller's published price list as at the date of the Order; Unless otherwise stated in the Order Acknowledgement, the price of the Goods is exclusive of all costs and charges of packaging, insurance or transport of the Goods which shall be paid by the Buyer.
- 4.2. The charges for Services shall be on a time and materials basis:
- 4.2.1. the charges shall be calculated in accordance with the Seller's fee rates, as advised by the Seller from time to time; and
- 4.2.2. the Seller shall be entitled to charge the Buyer for any expenses reasonably incurred by the individuals whom the Seller engages in connection with the Services including, but not limited to travelling expenses, hotel costs, subsistence and any associated expenses and for the cost of services provided by third parties and required by the Seller for the performance of the Services, and for the cost of any materials.
- 4.3. The Seller reserves the right to:
- 4.3.1. increase its fee rates for charges for Services. The Seller will give the Buyer written notice of any such increase three months before the proposed date of the increase. If such increase is not acceptable to the Buyer, it shall notify the Seller in writing within four weeks of the date of the Seller's notice and the Seller shall have the right without limiting its other rights or remedies and without liability to the Buyer to terminate the Contract by giving four weeks' written notice to the Buyer; and
- 4.3.2. increase the price of the Goods, by giving notice to the Buyer at any time before delivery, to reflect an increase in the cost of the Goods to the Seller that is due to:
- 4.3.2.1. any factor beyond the control of the Seller (including foreign exchange fluctuations, increases in taxes and duties, and increases in labour, materials and other manufacturing costs);
- 4.3.2.2. the introduction of, or change in (or in the interpretation, administration, or application of), any law or regulation, including (without limitation) any change in law or regulations arising from the United Kingdom ceasing to be a member state of the European Union;
- 4.3.2.3. any request by the Buyer to change the delivery date(s), quantities or types of Goods ordered, or the Goods Specification; or
- 4.3.2.4. any delay caused by any instructions of the Buyer in respect of the Goods or failure of the Buyer to give the Seller adequate or accurate information or instructions in respect of the Goods.
- 4.4. For the avoidance of doubt, all tariffs and customs duties payable in respect of the import of the Goods into a territory outside of the United Kingdom shall be payable by the Buyer. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, if tariffs are imposed upon the sale, licensing or other transfer of the Goods from the United Kingdom to a member of the state of the European Union, those tariffs will be paid by the Buyer.
- 4.5. Subject to clause 4.14, Seller may invoice the Buyer:
- 4.5.1. for the Goods at such time as set out in the Order Acknowledgment or at any time after delivery; and
- 4.5.2. for the Services at such time as set out in the Order Acknowledgment or at any time on or after performance commences.
- 4.6. Payment shall be made in the currency stated in the invoice and shall be due thirty days after the date of the invoice unless the parties have agreed alternative payment terms in the Order Acknowledgement.
- 4.7. No payment will be deemed to have been received until Seller has received payment in full and cleared funds to a bank account nominated in writing by the Seller.
- 4.8. All sums payable to Seller under the Contract will become due immediately upon termination of the Contract.
- 4.9. Time for payment shall be of the essence of the Contract.
- 4.10. All amounts payable by the Buyer under the Contract are exclusive of value added tax, any similar sales tax or any tax that replaces such sales taxes. Any such tax payable in relation to any such amounts shall be paid in addition to those amounts. If the Buyer is required under any applicable law to withhold or deduct any amount from the payments due to the Seller, the Buyer shall increase the sum it pays to the Seller by the amount necessary to leave the Seller with an amount equal to the sum it would have received if no such withholdings or deductions had been made.

- 4.11. Subject to clause 4.10, all payments to be made by the Buyer under the Contract will be made in full without any set-off, counterclaim, restriction or condition and without any deduction or withholding for or on account of any counterclaim.
- 4.12. The Seller may appropriate any payment made by the Buyer to such of the outstanding invoices as the Seller thinks fit, despite any purported appropriation by the Buyer.
- 4.13. If any sum payable under the Contract, or any other agreement between the Buyer and the Seller, is not paid when due then, without prejudice to the Seller's other rights under the Contract, the Seller is entitled to suspend delivery of the Goods or performance of the Services until the outstanding amount has been received by the Seller from the Buyer.
- 4.14. If any sum payable under the Contract is not paid when due then, without prejudice to the Seller's other rights under the Contract, that sum shall bear interest from the due date until payment is made in full, both before and after any judgment, at three per cent per annum above the Bank of England base rate from time to time and at three per cent for any period when that base rate is below 0%.

5. Delivery

- 5.1. Unless otherwise expressly specified in the Order Acknowledgement, the Buyer shall collect the Goods from the Seller's premises ("Delivery Location") by providing at its expense adequate and appropriate transport from the Delivery Location during the Seller's usual business hours at any time agreed in writing by the Seller and Buyer after the Seller has notified the Buyer that the Goods are ready for collection.
- 5.2. Unless otherwise agreed in the Order Acknowledgement, delivery of the Goods shall be completed on completion of loading by the Seller onto the Buyer's transport at the Delivery Location.
- 5.3. Delivery times for the supply of the Goods by the Seller in its quotation, Order Acknowledgement or otherwise in the Contract are estimates only and are not therefore of the essence of the Contract or binding on the Seller. The Seller shall not in any event be liable for any delay in delivery of the Goods including any delay that is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Buyer's failure to provide the Seller with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Goods.
- 5.4. If the Seller fails to deliver the Goods, its liability shall be limited to the costs and expenses incurred by the Buyer in obtaining replacement goods of similar description and quality in the cheapest market available, less the price of the Goods. The Seller shall have no liability for any failure to deliver the Goods to the extent that such failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event, the Buyer's failure to provide the Seller with adequate delivery instructions for the Goods or any relevant instruction related to the supply of the Goods.
- 5.5. The Seller may deliver the Goods in instalments which shall be invoiced and paid for separately. Each instalment shall constitute a separate contract. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Buyer to cancel any other instalment.
- 5.6. If the Buyer fails to take delivery of the Goods within ten Business Days of the Seller notifying the Buyer that the Goods are ready for collection or fails to give the Seller adequate delivery instructions at the time stated for delivery (otherwise than by reason of any cause beyond the Buyer's reasonable control or by reason of the Seller's fault) then, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Seller, delivery of the Goods shall be deemed to have been completed at 9.00 am on the eleventh Business Day following the day on which the Seller notified the Buyer that the Goods were ready, and the Seller shall:

- 5.6.1. store the Goods until actual delivery and charge the Buyer for the reasonable costs (including insurance) for the storage; and
- 5.6.2. if, fifteen Business Days after the Seller notified the Buyer that the Goods were ready for collection, the Buyer has not taken delivery of them, the Seller may resell or otherwise dispose of part or all of the Goods at the best price readily available and (after deducting all reasonable storage and selling expenses) account to the Buyer for the excess over the price of the Goods under the Contract or charge the Buyer for any shortfall below the price of the Goods under the Contract.

6. Buyer Obligations

6.1 The Buyer shall:

- 6.1.1 ensure that the terms of the Order and any information it provides in any specification are complete and accurate;
- 6.1.2 co-operate with the Seller in all matters relating to the Services;
- 6.1.3 provide the Seller, its employees, agents, consultants and subcontractors, with access to the Buyer's premises, office accommodation and other facilities as reasonably required by the Seller to provide the Services;
- 6.1.4 provide the Seller with such information and materials as the Seller may reasonably require in order to supply the Goods or Services, and ensure that such information is complete and accurate in all material respects;
- 6.1.5 obtain and maintain all necessary licences, permissions and consents which may be required for the supply of the Goods or Services before the date on which the Services are to start;
- 6.1.6 comply with all applicable laws, including export and import control and health and safety laws; and

- 6.1.7 comply with any additional obligations as set out in the Order Acknowledgement.
- 6.2 If the Seller's performance of any of its obligations under the Contract is prevented or delayed by any act or omission by the Buyer or failure by the Buyer to perform any relevant obligation (Buyer Default):
- 6.2.1 without limiting or affecting any other right or remedy available to it, the Seller shall have the right to suspend performance of the Contract until the Buyer remedies the Buyer Default, and to rely on the Buyer Default to relieve it from the performance of any of its obligations in each case to the extent the Buyer Default prevents or delays the Seller's performance of any of its obligations;
- 6.2.2 the Seller shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Buyer arising directly or indirectly from the Seller's failure or delay to perform any of its obligations as set out in this clause 6.2; and
- 6.2.3 the Buyer shall reimburse the Seller on written demand for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Seller arising directly or indirectly from the Buyer Default.
- 7. Force Majeure
- 7.1 The Seller shall not be liable to the Buyer as a result of any delay or failure to perform its obligations under the Contract as a result of Force Majeure.
- 7.2 The Buyer acknowledges and agrees that any delay or failure on the part of the Seller to perform its obligations under the Contract arising directly or indirectly as result of the United Kingdom ceasing to be a member state of the European Union shall be considered as having arisen as a result of Force Majeure.
- 7.3 If the Seller's performance of its obligations under the Contract is affected by Force Majeure, it will give written notice to the Buyer, specifying the nature and extent of the Force Majeure, as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the Force Majeure.
- 7.4 If the Force Majeure event continues for more than ninety days, either party may give written notice to the other to terminate the Contract. The notice to terminate must specify the termination date, which must not be less than thirty days after the date on which the notice is given, and once such notice has been validly given, the Contract will terminate on that termination date.
- 8. Warranty
- 8.1 The Seller warrants that the Goods will correspond with their specification at the time of delivery and will be free from defects in material and workmanship for a period of 12 months from the date of their delivery ("Warranty Period"). Notwithstanding this, the Seller reserves the right to amend the specification of the Goods if required by any applicable statutory or regulatory requirements, or which do not materially affect the nature or quality of the Goods, and the Seller shall notify the Buyer in such an event.
- 8.2 Subject to clause 7.3, if
- 8.2.1 the Buyer gives notice in writing in accordance with clause 7.4 that some or all of the Goods do not comply with the warranty set out in clause 7.1,
- 8.2.2 in accordance with clause 8.5, the Seller is given a reasonable opportunity of examining such Goods or the Buyer returns the Goods to the Seller's place of business;
- The Seller shall, at its option, repair or replace the defective Goods (or the relevant part thereof), or refund the price of the defective Goods (or the relevant proportion thereof).
- 8.3 The Seller shall not be liable for the Goods failure to comply with the warranty in clause 8.1, if :
- 8.3.1 the Buyer makes any further use of such Goods after giving notice in accordance with clause 8.2.1,
- 8.3.2 the defect arises from any drawing, design or specification supplied by the Buyer;
- 8.3.3 the defect arises from fair wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence, abnormal working conditions, failure to follow the Seller's instructions (whether oral or in writing), misuse or alteration or repair of the Goods without the Seller's approval; or
- 8.3.4 the Goods differ from their description as a result of changes made to ensure they comply with applicable statutory or regulatory standards.
- 8.4 Any claim by the Buyer that within the Warranty Period some or all of the Goods do not comply with clause 7.1, shall (whether or not delivery is refused by the Buyer) be notified to the Seller within 7 days from the date of delivery or, where the defect or failure was not apparent on reasonable inspection, within a reasonable time after discovery of the defect or failure. If delivery is not refused, and the Buyer does not notify the Seller accordingly, the Buyer shall not be entitled to reject the Goods and the Seller shall have no liability for such defect or failure, and the Buyer shall be bound to pay the price as if the Goods had been delivered in accordance with the Contract.
- 8.5 Where the Buyer wishes to make a claim in respect of any Goods which is based on any defect in the quality or condition of the Goods, or their failure to meet specification in accordance with these Standard Conditions, then the Buyer shall at the option of the Seller:

- 8.5.1. return the Goods to the Seller's place of business, and in the event that the Goods are found to be in breach of the warranty set out in clause 8.1, then the Seller shall be responsible for the reasonable and foreseeable costs for such return; or
- 8.5.2. recover the Goods to a location which in the opinion of the Seller provides safe and sufficient access to the Goods in order that its employee or representative may examine them in order to determine whether they are in breach of the warranty set out in clause 8.1. Where the Seller finds them to be in breach of the warranty, then if the Seller determines in its discretion pursuant to clause 8.1 that it intends to repair them, it may repair the Goods in situ or require the Goods to be returned to the Seller's place of business (in which event the Buyer shall be responsible for the reasonable and foreseeable costs for such return). Where the Seller finds that they are not in breach of warranty, the Buyer shall pay to the Seller all costs and expenses that it may have incurred in sending its employee or representative to examine them.
- 8.6. Except as provided in this clause 7, the Seller shall have no liability to the Buyer in respect of the Goods' failure to comply with the warranty set out in clause 7.1.
- 8.7. The terms of these Standard Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by the Seller under clause 7.2, provided that for the avoidance of doubt the warranty set out in clause 8.1 shall apply in respect of such Goods for the balance of the Warranty Period remaining as at the date of such repair or replacement.
- 9. Supply of Services
- 9.1. The Seller shall provide the Services to the Buyer in accordance with the specifications set out in the Order Acknowledgement in all material respects.
- 9.2. The Seller shall use reasonable endeavours to meet any performance dates for the Services specified in the Order Acknowledgement or as otherwise agreed by the parties, but any such dates shall be estimates only and time shall not be of the essence for the performance of the Services.
- 9.3. The Seller shall have the right to make any changes to the Services which are necessary to comply with any applicable law or regulatory or safety requirement, or which do not materially affect the nature or quality of the Services, and the Seller shall notify the Buyer in any such event.
- 9.4. The Seller warrants to the Buyer that the Services will be provided using reasonable care and skill.
- 10. Limitation of Liability
- 10.1. Nothing in these Standard Conditions shall limit or exclude the Seller's liability for:
- 10.1.1. death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or the negligence of its employees, agents or subcontractors;
- 10.1.2. fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
- 10.1.3. breach of the terms implied by section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 (title and quiet possession); or
- 10.1.4. breach of the terms implied by section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 (title and quiet possession).
- 10.2. Subject to clause 9.1:
- 10.2.1. the Seller shall under no circumstances whatsoever be liable to the Buyer, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for any loss of profit, or any indirect or consequential loss arising under or in connection with the Contract; and
- 10.2.2. the Seller's total liability to the Buyer in respect of all other losses arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall under no circumstances exceed the price of the Supplies.
- 10.3. The terms implied by sections 13 to 15 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 and the terms implied by sections 3 to 5 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.
- 10.4. This clause 10 shall survive termination of the Contract.
- 11. Termination, Events of Default & Remedies
- 11.1. Each of the following events is an Event of Default:
- 11.1.1. the Buyer commits a material breach of its obligations under the Contract and, if that breach is capable of remedy, the Buyer fails to remedy that breach within thirty (30) days of the Seller giving written notice to it requiring remedy; or
- 11.1.2. the Buyer suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts or (being a company or limited liability partnership) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being an individual) is deemed either unable to pay its debts or as having no reasonable prospect of so doing, in either case, within the meaning of section 268 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being a partnership) has any partner to whom any of the foregoing apply; or

- 11.1.3. a resolution is passed, a notice is given, a petition is filed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding-up or administration of the Buyer (unless in each case it is a voluntary solvent winding-up, reconstruction, amalgamation or reorganisation or part of a solvent scheme of arrangement); or
  - 11.1.4. the Buyer agrees to any kind of composition, rescheduling, scheme, compromise or arrangement involving it and its creditors generally (or any class of them) as a result of financial difficulties; or
  - 11.1.5. any administrative or other receiver or any manager of all or substantially all of the assets of the Buyer is appointed, a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given or a corresponding application is made to court; or an encumbrancer takes possession of, or any execution or distress is levied against, all or substantially all of the assets of the Buyer and which is not paid out or discharged within fourteen (14) days after such appointment, taking possession or levy; or
  - 11.1.6. the holder of a qualifying charge over the assets of the Buyer has become entitled to appoint or has appointed an administrative receiver;
  - 11.1.7. a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over the assets of the Buyer or a receiver is appointed over its assets;
  - 11.1.8. an event occurs, or proceedings are taken, with respect to the Buyer in any jurisdiction to which it is subject that has an equivalent or similar effect to any of the events mentioned in clause 11.1.2 to 11.1.7.
  - 11.1.9. the Buyer is acquired by or merged with any third party or any change of control shall occur; or
  - 11.1.10. the Buyer suspends or threatens to suspend, ceases or threatens to cease to carry on, all or substantially the whole of its business.
- 11.2. On or at any time after the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Seller shall be entitled (without prejudice to any other right or remedy) on giving written notice to the Buyer to exercise any one or more of the following rights or remedies:
- 11.2.1. to terminate the Contract, or reduce, reschedule or cancel any of the Supplies and in each case without having any liability to the Buyer; and/or
  - 11.2.2. to recover such damages as it may have sustained in connection with or as a result of such Event of Default.
- 11.3. Without prejudice to any other right or remedy which the Seller may have, whether or not set out in this Agreement, the Seller may without having liability to the Buyer and by notice in writing served on the Buyer terminate the Contract immediately if:
- 11.3.1. the Buyer commences the manufacture of any Goods which are similar to or may compete with the Goods.
  - 11.3.2. the Buyer does not comply with all requests for information and certification required by the Seller to meet its obligations under UK export control requirements as they apply to the Supplies provided under the Contract.
- 11.4. Upon termination, howsoever arising, the Buyer shall return all of the Seller's information, tooling and data forthwith to the Seller.
- 11.5. Termination of an Order or a Contract shall not affect or prejudice the accrued rights of the parties as at termination or the continuation of any provision expressly stated to survive, or which implicitly survives, termination.
- 11.6. These Standard Terms shall be in addition to the Seller's statutory and common law rights and shall not be a substitution for them.
- 12. Variation and Cancellation
- 12.1. The Seller shall be under no obligation whatsoever to accept any variation or cancellation of an Order once accepted by Order Acknowledgement. However, if the Seller at its complete discretion agrees in writing to accept any such variation or cancellation the Seller may levy such charges as it, in its absolute discretion, sees fit.
- 13. Confidentiality
- 13.1. Except with the prior written consent the Seller or as permitted by clause 13.2, the Buyer shall not disclose any of the Seller's Confidential Information to any person other than a person employed by the Buyer in the carrying out of the Contract. Any such disclosure shall be made in confidence and shall extend so far only as may be necessary for the purpose of the Contract.
- 13.2. The Buyer may disclose the Seller's Confidential Information to the extent such Confidential Information is required to be disclosed by law, by any governmental or other regulatory authority or by a court or other authority of competent jurisdiction provided that, to the extent it is legally permitted to do so, it gives the Seller as much notice of such disclosure as possible and, where notice of disclosure is not prohibited and is given in accordance with this clause 13.2, it takes into account the reasonable requests of the Seller in relation to the content of such disclosure.
- 13.3. All documents, including (without prejudice to the generality) specifications, drawings, plans or other data and any information containing, reflecting, incorporating or based on the Seller's Confidential Information, shall be returned to the Seller on completion of the Contract or upon request of the Seller; and be erased from the Buyer's computer and communication systems and devices used by it, including such systems and data storage services provided by third parties (to the extent technically and legally possible) provided that the Buyer may retain documents and materials containing, reflecting incorporating or based on the Seller's Confidential Information to the extent required by law or any applicable governmental or regulatory authority. The provisions of this clause shall continue to any such documents and materials retained by the Buyer.

13.4. The provisions of this clause 13 shall survive termination of the Contract, howsoever arising.

14. Intellectual Property Rights

14.1. To the extent that the Goods are to be manufactured, or Services supplied, in accordance with a specification supplied by the Buyer, the Buyer shall indemnify the Seller against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal and other professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by the Seller in connection with any claim made against the Seller for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's intellectual property rights arising out of or in connection with the Seller's use of such specification. This clause 14.1 shall survive termination of the Contract.

14.2. Save in respect of any specification supplied by the Buyer, all Intellectual Property Rights, designs and information relating to the Supplies shall vest in and be the absolute property of the Seller.

14.3. If the Buyer provides or utilises any materials in an electronic form or format (including e-mails and computer programs) for or in connection with the provision of Supplies under the Contract, the Buyer warrants that each such materials shall be free from viruses, bugs and logic bombs or other unauthorised, malicious or malignant code, program, routine or software protocol which disables, disrupts, restricts, slows down, impedes or otherwise obstructs the proper performance and operation of a computer system or any application run on such system.

14.4. No right or licence is granted to the Buyer in respect of existing or future Intellectual Property Rights of the Seller, except (i) the right to use or resell the Goods supplied under the Contract; (ii) the right to use the outputs of any Services in the ordinary course of its business and for their agreed/intended purpose; and (iii) the right to use any Seller software supplied under the Contract solely for the use of the Goods with which such software is supplied and (where applicable) in accordance with clause 14.7.

14.5. The Buyer will not without the Seller's prior written consent allow any trademarks of Seller or other words or marks applied to the Goods to be obliterated, obscured or omitted nor add any additional marks or words.

14.6. The Buyer shall not cause or permit the reverse engineering, disassembly, or decompilation of the Goods or any software or otherwise cause or permit any attempt to derive, obtain or modify the source code of any software, except to the extent permitted by law.

14.7. If any Seller software is subject to a separate license agreement between Buyer and Seller, then, notwithstanding the provisions of clause 3, the terms of such separate license agreement shall supersede the terms of the Contract insofar as they relate to the licensing of such Seller software.

14.8. The Buyer acknowledges that, in respect of any third party Intellectual Property Rights, the Buyer's use of any such Intellectual Property Rights is conditional on the Seller obtaining a written licence from the relevant licensor on such terms as will entitle the Seller to license such rights to the Buyer.

15. Risk and Title

15.1. Risk of damage to or loss of the Goods will pass to the Buyer on completion of delivery in accordance with clause 5.2.

15.2. Ownership of the Goods (excluding software) will not pass to the Buyer until the Seller has received in full (in cash or cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of:

15.2.1. the Goods; and

15.2.2. all other sums which are, or which become due to the Seller from the Buyer on any account.

15.3. Until ownership of the Goods (excluding software) has passed to the Buyer, the Buyer must:

15.3.1. hold the Goods on a fiduciary basis as the Seller's bailee;

15.3.2. store the Goods (at no cost to the Seller) separately from all other Goods of the Buyer or any third party in such a way that they remain readily identifiable as the Seller's property;

15.3.3. not remove, destroy, deface or obscure any identifying mark or packaging on or relating to the Goods; and

15.3.4. maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition and keep them insured on the Seller's behalf for their full price against all risks to the reasonable satisfaction of the Seller from the date of delivery, and will whenever requested by the Seller produce a copy of the policy of insurance;

15.3.5. notify the Seller immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in clause 11.1.2 to 11.1.8; and 15.3.6. give the Seller such information relating to the Goods as the Seller may require from time to time.

15.4. The Buyer may resell the Goods (or, in the case of software, sublicense the software) before ownership has passed to it solely on the following conditions:

15.4.1. any sale will be affected in the ordinary course of Buyer's business;

15.4.2. any such sale will be on the Buyer's own behalf and the Buyer will deal as principal and not as the Seller's agent; and

- 15.4.3. title to the Goods shall pass from the Seller to the Buyer immediately before the time at which resale by the Buyer occurs.
- 15.5. The Buyer's right to sell the Goods will terminate immediately if any of the circumstances set out in clause 10.1.2 to 10.1.8 occur. In such a case, the Seller may at any time:
- 15.5.1. require the Buyer to deliver up all the Goods in its possession which have not been resold or irrevocably incorporated into another product; and
- 15.5.2. if the Buyer fails to do so promptly, enter any premises of the Buyer or any third party where the Goods are stored in order to recover them.
- 15.6. Where the Seller is unable to determine whether any Goods are the goods in respect of which Buyer's right to possession has terminated, the Buyer will be deemed to have sold all goods of the kind sold by the Seller to the Buyer in the order in which they were invoiced to the Buyer.
- 15.7. On termination of the Contract, howsoever caused, the Seller's (but not the Buyer's) rights contained in this clause 15 will remain in effect.
- 16. Indemnity
- 16.1. The Buyer shall indemnify and hold the Seller harmless against any and all liability, loss, claims, costs, expenses or damages of any nature whatsoever incurred by the Seller as a result of or in connection with:
- 16.1.1. the Buyer's breach of the Contract;
- 16.1.2. any tortious (including negligent) acts, omissions or defaults of the Buyer or its employees, agents or subcontractors in connection with the provision of the Supplies; and
- 16.1.3. the Buyer's breach of any of its statutory obligations.
- 16.2. The provisions of this clause 16 shall survive termination of the Contract, howsoever arising.
- 17. Offset
- 17.1. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, any offset obligations that the Buyer may have to any third party are expressly rejected by the Seller and shall not in any event be the Seller's responsibility.
- 18. Publicity
- 18.1. The Buyer shall not publicise in any media or public announcement information regarding the terms of the Contract or the Supplies provided without the prior written consent of the Seller.
- 19. Data Protection Act
- 19.1. The Buyer warrants and undertakes that on receipt of any Personal Data from the Seller in connection with this Contract:
- 19.1.1. It shall duly observe all its obligations as a Controller under the Data Protection Laws which arise in connection with its processing of the Personal Data;
- 19.1.2. It shall comply with the principles relating to the processing of Personal Data set out in Articles 5(1) and 5(2) of the GDPR, and in particular shall process such Personal Data lawfully, fairly and transparently;
- 19.1.3. It shall send an appropriate privacy notice to each individual to whom any Personal Data relates as soon as practicable upon receiving such Personal Data from the Seller;
- 19.1.4. It shall respond to any request made by an individual to whom any Personal Data from the Seller relates in accordance with the rights of data subjects pursuant to the Data Protection Laws;
- 19.1.5. It shall obtain, and at all times maintain, its registration under the Data Protection Laws with the relevant supervisory authority, appropriate to its processing of Personal Data, including any Personal Data provided to it by the Seller pursuant to this Contract; and
- 19.1.6. It shall have in place at all times appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to any Personal Data from the Seller which is transmitted, stored or otherwise processed
- 19.2. The Buyer warrants that it shall only process any Personal Data from the Seller for such purposes as it shall notify in its privacy notice sent to the individuals to whom such Personal Data relates, in accordance with clause 19.1.3.
- 19.3. The Buyer shall indemnify the Seller against all losses suffered or incurred by the Seller arising out of or in connection with the processing of any Personal Data provided by the Seller in connection with this Contract, including those arising out of any third party demand, claim or action, or any breach of contract, negligence, wilful misconduct, fraud, breach of statutory duty or non-compliance with the provisions of this clause 19 or any part of the Data Protection Laws by the Buyer, its agents, employees or sub-contractors.
- 20. Export & Import
- 20.1. The Buyer acknowledges that the Supplies are subject to UK export control regulations and the Buyer will provide all necessary documentation, undertakings and certification that the Seller may reasonably require to comply with all conditions of any export licence currently in force. The Seller will provide reasonable cooperation to the Buyer to obtain any export licences the Buyer seeks, but obtaining such licenses shall be the exclusive responsibility of the Buyer and the Seller makes no representation or warranty regarding the issuance of export licenses for the Goods. The Seller will not be liable for any delays or costs associated with the Buyer's inability to produce the required documentation or any changes in applicable legislation or licence conditions. The Buyer shall indemnify the Seller against all costs incurred as a result of any such changes in legislation or non-performance of obligations by the Buyer.

- 20.2. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event of the failure of the Buyer to obtain or maintain any licence required for it to:
- 20.2.1. export the Supplies from the United Kingdom;
  - 20.2.2. import the Supplies into any other country; and/or
  - 20.2.3. re-export or otherwise transfer or deal with the Supplies,
- 20.3. or in the event the revocation of any of the foregoing (even where such failure or revocation arises because of a change of law or regulation, or the imposition of embargo or sanctions, occurring after the date on which the Contract is formed) the Buyer shall not be relieved of its obligations under the Contract including (without limitation) to pay in full the price of the Supplies which the Buyer shall be obliged to pay the Seller even if the Buyer shall fail to take delivery of the Supplies in question or is unable to do so.
- 20.4. The Buyer acknowledges further that the provision of certain Supplies may be subject to U.S. Government export laws and regulations. The Buyer shall not export, re-export, or transfer any Goods or Confidential Information received from the Seller without first obtaining the appropriate US Government approvals, if any.
- 20.5. The Buyer agrees to comply strictly with all export and/ or import laws applicable to any Supplies. The Buyer shall promptly notify the Seller of any authorisation requirements under export and/ or import laws that may apply to delivery of the Goods to Buyer site(s). The Buyer acknowledges and agrees that the Goods shall not be exported, re-exported, trans-shipped or otherwise transferred to any country for which the United States and/ or the European Union maintains an embargo (collectively, "Embargoed Countries"), or a national or resident thereof, or to any person or entity on the U.S. Department of Treasury List of Specially Designated Nationals, the U.S. Department of Commerce Denied Parties or Entity List, or to any person on any comparable list maintained by the European Union or its member states (collectively, "Denied or Restricted Parties"). The lists of Embargoed Countries and Denied or Restricted Parties are subject to change without notice. Buyer represents and warrants that neither it nor any of their customers or their users is located in, a national or resident of, or under the control of an Embargoed Country or similarly Denied or Restricted Party. Buyer specifically shall obtain all required authorizations from the U.S. (or EU as applicable) Government before transferring or otherwise disclosing technical data or technology to any foreign person.
- 20.6. The Buyer further acknowledges that it understands its obligation to protect EAR or ITAR controlled Goods and Services from unauthorized disclosure or access to foreign person employees or visitors.
- 20.7. In the performance of the Contract, the Buyer understands its obligation to determine whether it will require the use of third party subcontractors to access any technical data, Goods and/or Services. If required, and so far as permitted under the terms of the Contract, the Buyer is responsible for identifying and licensing any activity that requires export authorisation from the Department of Commerce, Bureau of Industry and Security or the Department of State, Directorate of Defense Trade Controls.
- 21. Inducement, Ethics and Anti-Bribery & Modern Slavery
- 21.1. Whether acting alone or with others, the Buyer undertakes that it will not do, and warrants that prior to issuing the Order it has not done, any of the following:
- 21.1.1. induce an employee, agent or sub-contractor of the Seller to make any concession to or confer any benefit on the Buyer, refrain or withhold from doing any act or alter any of the requirements of the Contract in return for any gift, money, benefit or other inducement; nor
  - 21.1.2. without the prior written consent of the Seller, pay money or give any other benefit to any third party (either directly or indirectly) in connection with the negotiation and/or issue of the Contract; nor
  - 21.1.3. encourage or facilitate an employee, agent or sub-contractor of the Seller to commit any act of dishonesty against the Seller which may benefit the employee, agent or sub-contractor of the Seller or be a detriment to the Seller, or both.
- 21.2. The Seller maintains an ethics programme and expects and encourages all its customers to embrace ethical values of a comparable standard (including a method for reporting possible violations).
- 21.3. Each party agrees that in connection with activities under the Contract it shall not make or promise to make any improper payments, or provide or offer to provide anything of value, directly or indirectly, to government officials or other parties in violation of the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act 1977 (as amended), the UK Bribery Act 2010/1977, or any other applicable anti-bribery laws. It is the intent of the parties that no payments or transfers of value shall be made which have the purpose or effect of public or commercial bribery, acceptance of or acquiescence in extortion, kickbacks or other unlawful or improper means of obtaining business or any improper advantage.
- 21.4. In performing its obligations under the agreement, the Buyer shall:
- 21.4.1. comply with all applicable anti-slavery and human trafficking laws, statutes, regulations and codes from time to time in force including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act 2015;

- 21.4.2. comply with the Anti-Slavery policy;
- 21.4.3. not engage in any activity, practice or conduct that would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 4, of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 if such activity, practice or conduct were carried out in the UK; and
- 21.5. The Buyer represents and warrants that neither the Buyer nor any of its officers, employees or other persons associated with it have been convicted of any offence involving slavery and human trafficking, or has been or is the subject of any investigation, inquiry or enforcement proceedings by any governmental, administrative or regulatory body regarding any offence of or in connection with slavery or human trafficking.
- 21.6. Breach of the requirements of this clause 21 shall be a material breach of this Contract which shall entitle the Seller to terminate in accordance with clause 11.1.1 and 11.2.1.
- 22. Publicity
- 22.1. The Buyer shall not publicise in any media or public announcement information regarding the terms of the Contract or the Supplies provided without the prior written consent of the Seller.
- 23. Notices
- 23.1. Any notice under the Contract sent by one Party to the other shall be in writing and shall be sent by first class post using recorded delivery to its address set out in the Contract or to such other address as may from time to time be notified by the one to the other and shall be deemed to be delivered two (2) business days after posting if the other party is based within the United Kingdom and within five (5) business days after posting if the other party is based outside the United Kingdom. Proof of posting shall be used as evidence to calculate the date of delivery. E-mail or facsimile transmissions will not be an acceptable means of sending notices.
- 24. Assignment & Sub-Contracting
- 24.1. The Seller may at any time assign or transfer all or any of its rights and/or obligations under the Contract without the consent of the Buyer.
- 24.2. The Buyer may not assign or transfer all or any of its rights and/or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Seller.
- 24.3. The Seller may at its sole discretion sub-contract any of its obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Buyer.
- 25. Waiver
- 25.1. A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that right or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict the exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that right or remedy.
- 26. Anticipated Non-Performance
- 26.1. Notwithstanding other provisions in these Standard Conditions, the Seller shall be entitled to suspend the performance of its obligations under the Contract when it is clear from the circumstances that the Buyer is not performing or is unable to perform its obligations. The Seller shall notify the Buyer in writing if it intends to suspend its performance of the Contract.
- 27. Severability
- 27.1. If any of the provisions of the Contract are found to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. In the event of such occurrence, the parties shall, insofar as it is legally permitted, agree on the replacement of the relevant provision with a valid one achieving the same or a similar purpose.
- 28. Entire Agreement
- 28.1. The Contract, together with any non-disclosure agreement, confidentiality agreement or other agreement relating to the same subject matter the parties may have entered into separately, shall constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of the Contract and supersede any prior discussions, oral or written agreement with respect to the subject matter of the Contract provided that nothing in this clause shall exclude liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 29. No partnership or agency.
- 29.1. Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the parties, constitute either party the agent of the other, or authorise either party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party.
- 30. Third party rights.
- 30.1. Unless it expressly states otherwise, the Contract does not give rise to any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Contract.
- 31. Law & Jurisdiction
- 31.1. The Contract, and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.
- 31.2. If there is any dispute at any time between the Parties arising out of or in connection with the Contract, then the Parties shall use reasonable endeavours to resolve the dispute amicably.
- 31.3. Subject to the provisions of clause 31.2 above, the parties agree that any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Contract, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, and any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Contract, shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the Rules of the London Court of International Arbitration, which Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause. The number of arbitrators shall be one. The seat, or legal place, of arbitration shall be London. The language to be used in the arbitration shall be English.
